HARVEY HAINES IS 40, NOW

Bigelow, Mo., Had a Great Day When Future Merchant Was Born—Oldest of "Haines Bunch."

Forty years ago today was a great day in Bigelow, Mo., — in fact it was a whole lot bigger than any of the inhabitants of the small town imagined. The weather was just about as it is now. The wind was whistling around the corners bringing in its train occasional flurries of the "beautiful." The branches of the trees were covered with ice crystals and on the sidewalks was a thin layer of ice, just slippery enough to make the wayfarer watch his steps.

Well anyway, this was an auspicious day in the little town, for it was the birthday of a successful Missourian merchant. A pair of bright blue eyes on that day caught their first glimpse of the world, and a tiny mind made the resolve never to depart far from the paths of merchandise.

Later on they called him Harvey. He moved to Kansas at a tender age and for a while Missouri saw him no more. While in Kansas, he studied the political situation thoroughly, and enabled his friends to make a few safe bets on the results of the recent election.

Harvey assures us that he is the oldest of the "Haines Bunch," and hastens to add that beside him the other members of the bunch are "mere children."

TRY TO BREAK WILL

MISS GRACE LANGAN FILES SUIT AGAINST AUNT'S ESTATE.

IS VALUED AT $200,000

The Bulk of Property Left to Kate Mulcahy, Life Long Servant of Mrs. Winifred McCabe.

Miss Grace Langan, a daughter of William Langan of this city, has filed a suit at Carlyle, Ill., to break the will of her aunt, Mrs. John McCabe, who died recently. The estate, which is valued at $200,000, was left to Mrs. McCabe's servant, Kate Mulcahy. Two other brothers of Mrs. McCabe, besides Mr. Langan of this city—John and Peter Langan—also survive. W. T. Wheeler of St. Louis is also a beneficiary in the estate to the amount of $5,000, but he preferred to lose the money rather than see the rightful heirs to the estate deprived of their inheritance.

The St. Louis Republic had the following story about it:

The will of Mrs. John McCabe, Clinton county's richest woman, was filed for probate here Saturday.

With the filing of the document there was instituted a contest to break the will, which has already stirred the little city of Carlyle to the white heat of passion, and which promises to become one of the most notable will contests the state has ever known.

Miss Grace Langan, a relative, is one of the principal contestants. The value of the estate is not known, but Carlyle residents say it will exceed $100,000, and probably approximate $200,000. It came to Mrs. McCabe in recent years through the discovery of oil on the old McCabe homestead, "Mound Farm," just north of Carlyle.

All Carlyle is awaiting with eagerness the developments of the will contest. Forty-one lonely years Kate Mulcahy sacrificed to her former bride-mistress, that she might bring a ray of sunshine into the new home which the death of Dr. John McCabe made desolate. Tonight, Kate Mulcahy, gray-haired and crippled with rheumatism, sits alone in a neat and modest little home. At the age of 63 years, her mistress, the one to whom as a rosy cheeked Irish lass of 22 she dedicated her life, has gone. Mrs. McCabe's will, in accordance with her promise of 41 years ago, left to her the great bulk of the estate. Kate Mulcahy, at her age, has no particular use for a fortune, but she wonders if the lifetime wish of her lifetime mistress is to be defeated by the courts.

WILL GROW SOME WHISKERS

Prof. P. O. Landon Loses Bet on Election and is Anxiously Awaiting Results.

Maryville tonsorial parlors will miss the smiling countenance of Prof. P. O. Landon for some time to come as a result of an election bet made between him and W. W. Jones on the result of the presidential race.

W. W. Jones is an ardent Democrat, so ardent that he was willing to wager his long cherished whiskers on the success of his party. On the other hand, Professor Landon is a man of the staunchest Republican principles, and his belief in the ability of Charles Evans Hughes to swing the nation the Republican way was so strong that he was willing to grow a set of sideburns, chin whiskers and a mustache on the issue.

Result: When it looked as though Mr. Hughes would move his family into the White House, Mr. Jones was a pretty sick looking Democrat, and stole many an anxious look in the mirror at his beautiful glossy whiskers, which were becoming dearer every minute.

When the wheel of fortune began to go the other way, however, Mr. Jones cheered up, and it was time for Professor Landon to be concerned over the election. He began to worry about his standing as one of the good looking men of the vicinity if he added a set of whiskers and a mustache. Consequently he decided to try the effect. He procured a false outfit, donned it and hastened to accost his friends. At first they didn't know him, and when they found out who he was they greeted him with a burst of enthusiasm. Compliments from many of the women helped immensely.

Professor Landon is not awaiting anxiously for the real mustaches and whiskers that will be his in a few weeks.

WILSON IS AT WORK

MEXICAN PROBLEM AMONG SUBJECTS TO BE TAKEN UP.

DISCUSS NEW CABINET

Harry A. Garfield of Williams College Considered—California Recount Begins.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson, on his return to Washington, today, after his victory at the polls Tuesday found the Mexican situation still menacing. The entire Mexican problem is among the subjects scheduled for consideration at this week's conference of the president with Secretary of State Lansing before the opening of congress.

Leaders of the progressive wing of the Democratic party are authority today for the statement that President Harry A. Garfield of Williams college is being considered as a member of the new cabinet.

President Wilson called Secretary of State Lansing to the White House for a conference which, it is expected, will result in quick action in diplomatic affairs with England, Germany and Mexico.

Began California Count.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—With Wilson's plurality standing at 3,600, there is little talk of fraud, and consequently small talk of a recount.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—The official count of California's vote in the presidential election began today and steps have been taken not only to expedite the enumeration, but to insure its accuracy. Both the Democratic and Republican state central committees have engaged checkers and attorneys to scrutinize the count of each tally sheet.

The Republican state central committee was busy Sunday getting in figures on the individual votes of all electors in the belief, it was announced, that at least some of the Republican electors might be found to have enough votes to qualify for the electoral college.

Hughes Awaits Final Count.

New York, Nov. 13.—Charles E. Hughes and William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, plan to remain in New York for a week or more to await the result of the official count of the vote in California, it was announced. Once the official count is finished they expect to take a vacation, Mr. Willcox said.

The national chairman called upon Mr. Hughes at his hotel Sunday. Later Mr. Willcox said:

"We are in the same position as we have been since election night. We want an official count in California to assure the re-election of Mr. Wilson, before we are willing to concede defeat. Far be it from us to deprive President Wilson of one single vote properly cast for him."

When the fire was discovered the whole haw mow was in a blaze, and although the live stock was easily rescued, nothing could be done to save the forty tons of hay, the five or six tons of bailed straw and the 200 bushels of oats which the barn contained.

In Massachusetts they have an election every year. It is fortunate everybody doesn't have to live in Massachusetts.

Mr. Hughes seems as slow about conceding Wilson's election as he has been about discovering campaign issues.

After scanning the "wet" returns from St. Louis, one would conclude that both parties got out a reasonably full vote in that city.

Judge Hughes went with his wife to see a production of "Pollyana" Saturday night. He wanted to learn how to be happy under difficulties.

The official returns give New Hampshire to Wilson by 63 votes. With California, New Mexico and New Hampshire he now has 276 votes, giving him a margin of ten for emergencies.

County Chairman M. E. Ford, Secretary Geo. R. Ellison and all the faithful workers deserve the thanks of the Democracy of Nodaway county for their hard work and the successful results in this county.

Judge H. B. Shain of Sedalia has been convinced of the justice and constitutionality of the absent voting law. On the face of the home returns he was defeated for circuit judge, but when the absent votes were counted he came under the wire with six votes to the good

The next speaker of the national house of representatives will have a new lesson to learn. Since the establishment of our government the rule has been invariably to recognize a member as "the gentleman" from the state from which he hails. He will now have to learn to say "the lady from Montana." What will happen should he fail to recognize her, as he frequently does the men, remains to be seen.

The race for governor of Missouri has been the closest the state has ever known. Col. Gardner was handicapped in ways difficult to avoid. A certain prejudice against Governor Major caused many to vote for the Republican candidate. The Progressive candidate, Mr. Fontron was also on the Prohibition ticket, and many who voted for Wilson voted for the Progressive-Prohibition candidate for governor. Finally, when Col. Gardner's campaign managers permitted him to make a declaration in St. Louis against statutory prohibition without a complete explanation it lost him many votes in the country. Col. Gardner took the position that a prohibitive act passed by the legislature should not meet his approval, because the people would have no opportunity to vote upon it. It had nothing to do with the constitutional amendment that was voted on at the recent election, but many undoubtedly failed to discriminate between a legislative bill and a constitutional amendment Judge Lamm remained silent on that question, merely declaring for local option, and pleased the wet vote of the cities along with the dry vote of the country, apparently.

Some people think that on "Thanksgiving day,"
As set apart by proclamation, they
Must do their thanking for the whole long year——
Give thanks for all that makes life sweet and dear,
Acknowledge all the blessings that have come
To them or those within their earthly home!
They seem to think that on this day of days
They must condense a full twelvemonth of praise!

God pity such, as He must pity all
The blind and deaf on whom His mercies fall
Each day without their knowledge!—Were they now
To make one solemn, deep and heartfelt vow
That every blessing of the season's round
Should be acknowledged with a joyful sound,
And were they given to see with vision clear,
They'd fill with praise the whole long busy year!

And so the Thursday yearly set apart
To let the lips be spokesman for the heart,
Instead of being one on which we give
Our only thanks that we still love and live,
Should be but one on which we concentrate
And in our public places congregate.
On leap years we should fill our heartfelt praise.
Three hundred and sixty-six Thanksgiving days!

The Baffling Reality of The Tones From
The New Edison

Music lovers are amazed and critics marvel at the wonderful re-production of Edisons new invention. "The ear cannot distinguish the Re-Creation from the living Tone," they say.

The NewEdison Diamond point is unlike a talking machine. It places good music perfectly re-produced within the reach of all.

COURT REVERSES DECISION

R. R. Company Gained One Point When Damage Case is Tried in Federal Court of Appeals.

A railroad company can be held responsible for destruction of property, which results when sparks set fire to grass, but cannot be held responsible for injury to cattle, if the cattle take fright at the fire, stampede, and injure some of the herd.

This has been held by the federal court of appeals, sitting in St. Paul, Minn., in a suit which was tried in the federal court here some months ago.

David A. Gelvin of Maitland, Mo., sued the Burlington for the destruction of a lot of grass and damage to a herd of 400 cattle, near Maitland.

A jury in the court here returned a verdict of $2,000 for loss of the grass and $5,400 for damage to the cattle which stampeded as a result of the fire. The court affirmed the $2,000 verdict and reversed the $5,400 verdict.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
